Dear agents of the United States and representatives on the FOIAAC, A person who today answered my call to the office of the attorney advisor of the OGIS (202-741-5777) and identified himself as "Jim Clemens" declared to me that OGIS "only has seven employees and does not need an Inspector General" and that the attorney advisor of the OGIS who is named "Corrina Zarek" is actually not "physically there at the OGIS" but still serves as such attorney advisor. The above information has been neglected to be published on the internet website of the OGIS at the invalid domain "ogis.archives.gov". Sincerely, Brady Eames
