Dear agents of the United States and Representatives on the FOIAAC, Conceded by the fugitive and un-codified Director of the OGIS named Miriam Nisbet in her FY 2012 Report titled "Building a Bridge between FOIA Requesters & Federal Agencies" (see <https://ogis.archives.gov/Assets/OGIS+Reports/OGIS+Report+March+2013.pdf?method=1>) and in an "OIG Audit Report No. 12-14" issued on September 11, 2012 (see <http://www.archives.gov/oig/pdf/2012/audit-report-12-14.pdf>) by the NARA's Inspector General named Paul Brachfeld who has just been found guilty of "administrative misconduct" is "an inherent tension" between the two statutory missions of the OGIS and the fact that there exists no "separate team" within the OGIS to "assess agencies' FOIA policies, procedures, and compliance". In light of such concessions, one must suspect that OGIS has not actually been engaged in discharging its statutory duties under 5 USC 552(h)(2) without ever having admitted it. Sincerely, Brady Eames
