

The Hoover Museum is Hosting a Quilting Bee!

An Invitation to Create a Bear Paw 12-inch Quilt Block

The Hoover Museum is collecting 12-inch Bear Paw quilt blocks for our quilting bee. We are seeking persons interested in donating a block (or multiple blocks) to us by August 13, 2019. We will have the blocks assembled into a quilt top by the Cotton Creek Mill Quilt Shop (West Branch) and then will have the quilt top available for an old fashioned Quilting Bee on Sunday, Sept. 1, 2019.

The Quilting Bee will be followed by a program about Laura Ingalls Wilder presented by Sarah Uthoff at 2:00 p.m. in the auditorium.

If you are interested in participating in this project, please contact the Hoover Museum for a "focal piece of fabric" to be incorporated into your block. We can be reached by phone, 319-643-5301 (ask for Janlyn or Spencer) or by email, hoover.library@nara.gov. The fabric can be mailed to you.
