The Great Communicator Files: “Challenger Speech” File

“Address to the Nation: Death of Space Shuttle Challenger Crew”

President Ronald Reagan was known as the Great Communicator. Inside this file of original documents from the Ronald Reagan Presidential Archives, you’ll uncover information relating to the speech President Reagan made after the Space Shuttle Challenger, carrying a seven-person crew including the first teacher involved in a space mission, exploded upon takeoff in 1986.

You’ll go behind the scenes of the Reagan White House to explore the role of a president during a national crisis and the methods the president and his team used for gathering information and writing an address to the nation. You’ll also gain special insight into President Reagan’s speech-making style and public reaction to his words of consolation and support.

Then, you’ll have the opportunity to develop your own personal style of communication and translate it into an address of your own. Excerpts from the very best speeches will be highlighted on the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum website.

Challenger: Speech Writing

SPEECH ELEMENTS

1. Elements of a successful speech include:

- Attention-getting devices such as stories or interesting facts or jokes.
- Clear communication – understandable language and specific points, ideas and plans.
- Accurate information.
- Specific examples to back-up your ideas.
- An exciting ending such as a call to action or the repetition of a unifying theme.

2. Multiple Drafts and Lots of Practice

Successful speeches, including presidential speeches, generally have gone through numerous drafts and have often been seen and reviewed by more than one person. Presidents generally practice their speeches and receive suggestions on how to best present information to the public.

3. Know Thyself

Develop your own style. Present your speech in a manner which is consistent with and reflects your own personality.

QUESTION ON THE CHALLENGER SPEECH ELEMENTS:

(Answer the following question on a separate sheet of paper)

List, describe and provide three examples of the elements of successful speech writing evidenced in President Reagan’s “Address to the Nation: Death of Space Shuttle Challenger Crew.”

Challenger: Speech Writing

CREATE YOUR OWN SPEECH:

1. Brainstorm a list of issues which are important to you. They can be school-based, local, state, national or international issues.

Some examples may include:

- creating grade restrictions for playing on an athletic team,
 - school-improvement efforts,
 - lowering the age required to obtain a drivers' license,
 - election reform,
- or
- foreign policy.

2. Write a 250 word speech. Make sure you incorporate the “elements of a successful speech” described above.
3. Ask at least two other people you trust to read over your speech and make comments and suggestions.
4. Incorporate at least two of the suggestions and change your speech to reflect these suggestions.
5. Practice your speech in front of at least two other people.
6. Email your speech to reaganeducation@nara.gov.

Excerpts from the very best speeches will be posted on the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum website.

Additionally, three times a year, one speech will be selected as the Great Communicator Student Winner. The student winner's speech will be posted in the rotunda of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library.

Each student winner will receive:

- ☺ four free passes to the Ronald Reagan Presidential Museum
- ☺ a certificate
- ☺ additional prizes from the museum gift store

The Great Communicator Files: Challenger Speech Connections to California State Standards

The “Great Communicator Files” address both the secondary standards skills as well as standards-driven content.

Listed below are some relevant excerpts from the California Content Standards for history and social sciences.

GRADES SIX THROUGH EIGHT- HISTORICAL and SOCIAL SCIENCES ANALYSIS SKILLS

Research, Evidence, and Point of View

3. Students assess the credibility of primary and secondary sources and draw sound conclusion from them.

Historical Interpretation

2. Students understand and distinguish cause, effect, sequence, and correlation in historical events, including the long and short-term causal relations.

GRADE EIGHT- UNITED STATES HISTORY and GEOGRAPHY GROWTH and CONFLICT

8.4 Students analyze the aspirations and ideals of the people of the new nation.

2. Explain the policy significance of famous speeches (e.g., Washington’s Farewell Address, Jefferson’s 1801 Inaugural Address, John Q. Adams’s Fourth of July 1821 Address).

GRADES NINE THROUGH TWELVE: INTRODUCTION

Chronological and Spatial Thinking

1. Students compare the present with the past, evaluating the consequences of past events and decisions and determining the lessons that were learned.

The Great Communicator Files: Challenger Speech

Connections to California State Standards

Historical Interpretation

1. Students show the connections, causal and otherwise, between particular historical events and larger social, economic, and political trends and developments.

GRADE TEN

World History, Culture, and Geography: The Modern World

Students in grade ten study major turning points that shaped the modern world, from the late eighteenth century through the present, including the cause and course of the two world wars. They trace the rise of democratic ideas and develop an understanding of the historical roots of current world issues, especially as they pertain to international relations. They extrapolate from the American experience that democratic ideals are often achieved at a high price, remain vulnerable, and are not practiced everywhere in the world. Students develop an understanding of current world issues and relate them to their historical, geographic, political, economic, and cultural contexts. Students consider multiple accounts of events in order to understand international relations from a variety of perspectives.

10.9 Students analyze the international developments in the post-World War II world.

1. Compare the economic and military power shifts caused by the war, including the Yalta Pact, the development of nuclear weapons, Soviet control over Eastern European nations, and the economic recoveries of Germany and Japan.
2. Analyze the causes of the Cold War, with the free world on one side and Soviet client states on the other, including competition for influence in such places as Egypt, the Congo, Vietnam, and Chile.
3. Understand the importance of the Truman Doctrine and the Marshall Plan, which established the pattern for America's postwar policy of supplying economic and military aid to prevent the spread of Communism and the resulting economic and political competition in arenas such as Southeast Asia, Cuba, and Africa.
6. Analyze the reasons for the collapse of the Soviet Union, including the weakness of the command economy, burdens of military commitments, and growing resistance to Soviet rule by dissidents in satellite states and the non-Russian Soviet republics.

The Great Communicator Files: Challenger Speech

Connections to California State Standards

10.10 Students analyze the integration of countries into the world economy and the information, technological, and communications revolutions (e.g., television, satellites, computers).

GRADE ELEVEN

United States History and Geography: Continuity and Change in the Twentieth Century

They learn that the United States has served as a model for other nations and that the rights and freedoms we enjoy are not accidents, but the results of a defined set of political principles that are not always basic to citizens of other countries. Students understand that our rights under the U.S. Constitution are a precious inheritance that depends on an educated citizenry for their preservation and protection.

11.8 Students analyze the economic boom and social transformation of post-World War II America.

5. Describe the increased powers of the presidency in response to the Great Depression, World War II, and the Cold War.
7. Describe the effects on society and the economy of technological developments since 1945, including the computer revolution, changes in communication, advances in medicine, and improvements in agricultural technology.

11.9 Students analyze U.S. foreign policy since World War II.

3. Trace the origins and geopolitical consequences (foreign and domestic) of the Cold War and containment policy...
4. Analyze the role of the Reagan administration and other factors in the victory of the West in the Cold War.

11.11 Students analyze the major social problems and domestic policy issues in contemporary American society.

2. Discuss the significant domestic policy speeches of Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, Carter, Reagan, Bush and Clinton...

GRADE TWELVE

12.4 Students analyze the unique roles and responsibilities of the three branches of government as established by the U.S. Constitution.

The Great Communicator Files: Challenger Speech Connections to California State Standards

3. Discuss Article II of the Constitution as it relates to the executive branch, including eligibility for office and length of term, election to and removal from office, the oath of office, and the enumerated executive powers.

12.8 Students evaluate and take and defend positions on the influence of the media on American political life.

1. Discuss the meaning and importance of a free and responsible press.
2. Describe the roles of broadcast, print, and electronic media, including the Internet, as means of communication in American politics.
3. Explain how public officials use the media to communicate with the citizenry and to shape public opinion.

Principles of Economics

12.3 Students analyze the influence of the federal government on the American economy.

1. Understand how the role of government in a market economy often includes providing for national defense etc.
