Eric Schwerin needs to talk to you when you have a few minutes.

John and Mike Tosi from your Archmere days are coming to DC this week for the US Open and requested an office visit with you. I told them unfortunately, your schedule was packed with Afghanistan, debt negotiations, etc. I offered them a West Wing tour and they are very interested. If you want to surprise them with a 5 minute hello, I will arrange to do the tour during the day when you might have a few minutes. Otherwise I will do it in the evening.
