

My dear Mr. President,

Ambasciatore long has handed to me, with his usual courtesy, your very kind letter of May 14th. and the copy of the inaugural address which on your induction into the Presidency of United States that you have inscribed to me. I wish to express to you my most sincere thanks and appreciation for your kindness. I will keep your address in my library among my most valuable remembrances as a token of your friendship.

I am very glad that you have chosen as Ambassador of the U.S. of A. to Italy one of the finest of young men. I can assure you that Mr. Long has been from the very first moment my personal esteem.
 the relations of the United States and Italy. We were more cordial and friendly and I firmly believe our capacity hope that they will continue, giving big results, to grow closer and stronger with each succeeding year.

I hope of meeting you some day in the near future in order to have the opportunity to discuss with you the outstanding world problems in which United States and Italy are mutually interested.

With this hope, I avail myself of the occasion to render to you the assurance of my highest and most respectful consideration.

I am, my dear Mr. President

Very sincerely yours
