The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) requires Senior Agency Officials for Records Management (SAORM) to provide an annual report demonstrating how agencies are handling important records management initiatives as identified by NARA.

NARA uses the reports to determine the overall progress of the Federal Government in managing its records and the transition away from paper to digital formats and to identify best practices and model solutions within Federal agencies.

The reporting period begins on March 11, 2019 with reports due back to NARA no later than April 19, 2019.

NARA plans to post your 2018 SAORM report on the NARA website upon receipt. Please ensure that your agency’s report is a publicly releasable version. This action is in the interest of transparency in Government and to promote collaboration and communication among agencies. NARA intends to list any non-responding agencies in a summary report and on the website.

   Please provide list: The Defense Nuclear Facility Safety Board (DNFSB) is an independent agency and all components are covered in this report.

2. Is your agency and its components making progress towards managing all permanent electronic records in electronic format by December 31, 2019? (M-12-18, Goal 1.1)

   - X Yes

   Please explain your response: The DNFSB implemented a solution to manage permanent e-mail records in the government cloud. The DNFSB’s E-mail Managed Under Capstone Approach was approved January 25, 2017 and subsequently implemented. Permanent e-mail records generated by officials identified in the Capstone approach are retained electronically. Additionally, the DNFSB Electronic Records Management Working Group has been established to determine the best solution for managing permanent and temporary electronic records which fall outside of the e-mail system.

   - ☐ Yes
   - X No

   Please explain your response: Resource constraints of a small agency present a challenge in moving forward on this goal.

4. As included in the Administration’s Delivering Government Solutions in the 21st Century: Reform Plan and Reorganization Recommendations (June 2018), NARA will no longer accept paper records after December 31, 2022. Is your agency developing strategic plans, goals, objectives, and initiatives that will enable it to comply with this deadline?

   The Reform Plan states:
   Transition to Electronic Environment: Transition Federal agencies’ business processes and recordkeeping to a fully electronic environment, and end the National Archives and Records Administration’s acceptance of paper records by December 31, 2022. This would improve agencies’ efficiency, effectiveness, and responsiveness to citizens by converting paper-based processes to electronic workflows, expanding online services, and enhancing management of Government records, data, and information.

☐ Yes
☐ No

Please explain your response (include specific goals and example metrics): The re-organization plan does not require additional steps to ensure that records management requirements are met for the management of permanent records. The Electronic Records Management Working Group is currently working on solutions for the electronic management of temporary records by 2022.

5. Is your agency utilizing General Service Administration’s Schedule 36 to procure solutions to assist in transitioning to an Electronic Environment?

*Senior officials are the heads of departments and independent agencies; their deputies and assistants; the heads of program offices and staff offices including assistant secretaries, administrators, and commissioners; directors of offices, bureaus, or equivalent; principal regional officials; staff assistants to those aforementioned officials, such as special assistants, confidential assistants, and administrative assistants; and career Federal employees, political appointees, and officers of the Armed Forces serving in equivalent or comparable positions.

Finally, during the exit process, the senior official is required to sign a Records Management Exit Checklist before the Records Manager clears their departure on the exit form.

8. Have you, as the SAORM, implemented an appropriate role-based records management training program that covers recordkeeping responsibilities for all staff including those with dedicated records management roles, Federal employees, contractors, senior executives and appointees? (See NARA Bulletin 2017-01: Agency Records Management Training Requirements)

   X Yes
   ☐ No

Please explain your response: Annual training is provided to all employees, including contractors, senior executives and appointees.
