1. What does this document do?

GRS Transmittal 32 announces changes to the General Records Schedules (GRS) made since NARA published GRS Transmittal 31 in April 2020. The GRS provide mandatory disposition instructions for records common to several or all Federal agencies.

Transmittal 32 includes alterations to seven previously published schedules. As with the past few transmittals, this transmittal publishes only those schedules which have changed since they were last published in a transmittal. Other schedules not published in this transmittal remain current and authoritative. You can find all schedules (in Word and PDF formats), a master crosswalk, FAQs for all schedules, and FAQs about the whole GRS at <http://www.archives.gov/records-mgmt/grs.html>.

2. What changes does this transmittal make to the GRS?

GRS Transmittal 32 publishes updates to:

- GRS 2.4 Employee Compensation and Benefits Records (see question 3 below)
- GRS 2.7 Employee Health and Safety Records (see question 4 below)
- GRS 4.2 Information Access and Protection Records (see question 5 below)
- GRS 4.4 Library Records (see question 6 below)
- GRS 5.3 Continuity and Emergency Planning Records (see question 7 below)
- GRS 5.6 Security Records (see question 8 below)
- GRS 5.7 Agency Accountability Records (see question 9 below)

3. What changes did we make to GRS 2.4?

We added a flexible retention option (“but longer retention is authorized if required for business use”) to item 035. Our omission of this flexibility from the original item was an oversight.

4. What changes did we make to GRS 2.7?

We added two items to cover records of vaccine attestations for Federal employees and contractors (item 063) and visitors (item 064), and two items to cover symptom screening and testing records for Federal employees (item 065) and contractors and visitors (item 66).

5. What changes did we make to GRS 4.2?

We reduced the retention period of item 100. It previously directed agencies to retain the records for 30 years after completing a declassification review. Now, agencies may destroy records documenting a declassification review immediately upon either of two subsequent events: the agency conducts another declassification review or the agency transfers the reviewed records to NARA. We altered the retention period in response to a request from the Department of State, which pointed out that the previous instruction could result in agencies being required to retain records documenting the declassification process until as late as 105 years after the records were created.

6. What changes did we make to GRS 4.4?

We modified the background information to clarify that the schedule applies to library and information centers within agencies, but not to stand-alone libraries, such as the Library of Congress, or national libraries.

7. What changes did we make to GRS 5.3?

In the first sentence of the Background Information, we changed the generic word “sensitive” to a term with a precise definition: “controlled unclassified.”

8. What changes did we make to GRS 5.6?

We updated this schedule to further clarify that it does not include records related to Federal law enforcement and Federal correctional activities and that this exclusion includes border and transportation security and immigration and naturalization services. We changed the schedule title “Security Management Records” to help with this distinction.

We altered item 010 to clarify the subject matter as security management and expanded the description’s list of examples. We removed the bullet for standard operating procedures manuals, as they are properly covered by GRS 5.7, item 030.

We revised items 030, 090, and 100 to clarify that they do not cover records related to Federal law enforcement and correctional activities including border and transportation security and immigration and naturalization services. Item 090 was revised to make it clear that it does not apply to videos of accidents or incidents or video surveillance of accidents or incidents in Federal facilities or facilities operated by contractors on behalf of the Federal Government.

We revised item 120’s disposition instruction to be more concise. We revised item 130’s title to clarify that it covers all manner of temporary access identification records. We changed the term “sensitive data” to “controlled unclassified information” in items 180 and 181.

9. What changes did we make to GRS 5.7?

We revised this schedule to clarify that it applies only to records related to management and oversight of agency administrative functions. This included changing the name of the schedule to “Administrative Management and Oversight Records” and updating the background information to clarify that it applies only to management of administrative functions, not functions related to agency mission. The new background section specifically excludes records related to agency strategic planning and performance management.

We altered item 010's title and revised the list of examples to remove generic records types that are arguably not "management controls."

We revised the title of item 040 and added a sentence to the description to clarify that the item applies only to requirements for reports related to administrative activities. We also added an exclusion to clarify that item 040 does not cover the reports themselves.

We eliminated from item 050's list of included records reports that are not specific to administrative activities, such as Performance and Accountability Reports (PAR). We also added an exclusion to make it clear that mandatory reports related to non-administrative matters are not covered by this item and must be scheduled by the agency

10. How do agencies cite GRS items?

When you send records to an FRC for storage, you should cite the records' legal authority—the "DAA" number—in the "Disposition Authority" column of the table. Please also include schedule and item number. For example, "DAA-GRS-2017-0007-0008 (GRS 2.2, item 070)."

11. Do agencies have to take any action to implement these GRS changes?

NARA regulations (36 CFR 1226.12(a)) require agencies to disseminate GRS changes within six months of receipt.

Per 36 CFR 1227.12(a)(1), you must follow GRS dispositions that state they must be followed without exception.

Per 36 CFR 1227.12(a)(3), if you have an existing schedule that differs from a new GRS item that does not require being followed without exception, and you wish to continue using your agency-specific authority rather than the GRS authority, you must notify NARA within 120 days of the date of this transmittal.

If you do not have an already existing agency-specific authority but wish to apply a retention period that differs from that specified in the GRS, you must submit a records schedule to NARA for approval via the Electronic Records Archives.

12. How can an agency get copies of the new GRS?

You can download the complete current GRS, in PDF format, from NARA's web site at <http://www.archives.gov/records-mgmt/grs.html>.

13. Whom should an agency contact for further information?

Please contact GRS_Team@nara.gov with any questions related to this transmittal.

GENERAL RECORDS SCHEDULE 2.4: Employee Compensation and Benefits Records

This schedule covers records Federal agencies create while conducting agency payroll functions (items 010-061) and while managing specific programs that offer employees monetary or other tangible benefits (items 070 to 141). See GRS 2.3 (Employee Relations Records) and GRS 2.7 (Employee Health and Safety Records) for other programs that provide intangible benefits, protections, or assistance to employees.

Most payroll is processed electronically. Agencies create payroll system input records both electronically and on paper (brought into the system by scanning). This schedule covers only versions the agency determines to be official payroll system records. GRS 5.2, item 020 (Intermediary records) covers paper documents for which the agency designates their equivalent electronic versions to be the record copies.

This schedule does not cover Office of Personnel Management files that reflect its own or other agencies' personnel needs and problems. Agencies must offer records they created prior to January 1, 1921, to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) before applying disposition instructions in this schedule.

GENERAL RECORDS SCHEDULE 2.7: Employee Health and Safety Records

This schedule covers records about employee health and safety functions within federal agencies.

Conditions and Exclusions

The following conditions and exclusions apply to all disposition authorities in this schedule.

1. Agencies must offer any records created prior to January 1, 1921, to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) before applying disposition instructions in this schedule.
2. This schedule does not apply to mission-related federal research, monitoring, standard-setting and enforcement activities to ensure environmental protection, occupational safety, and public health. Such records are covered by agency-specific schedules.
3. The terms “non-occupational” and “patient” are used in this schedule to refer to nonwork-required health services and to health conditions not causally connected to the employee’s work or workplace. The terms “workplace” and “safety” refer to occupational records.

GENERAL RECORDS SCHEDULE 5.3: Continuity and Emergency Planning Records

This schedule covers records related to federal agency internal emergency planning to protect people, government facilities, equipment, and records; safeguard classified or controlled unclassified information; ensure continuity of agency operations in the face of potential natural and man-made disasters; and facilitate timely recovery and return to normal agency operations once the emergency or disaster has passed.

Agencies must offer any records created prior to January 1, 1921, to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) before applying disposition instructions in this schedule.

This schedule does not include the following:

- external emergency planning records related to providing emergency response and recovery services to the public
- records related to high-level Government-wide Continuity of Government (COG) planning
- emergency response planning related to mission activities in the agency, e.g. NASA emergency plans for when a rocket explodes
- records related to a national disaster or incident response

These records may be of permanent value and must be scheduled on an agency-specific records schedule.

GENERAL RECORDS SCHEDULE 5.6: Security Management Records

Security Management involves the physical protection of an organization’s personnel, assets, and facilities (including security clearance management). Activities include: security operations for protecting agency facilities, staff, and property; managing personnel security; and insider threat protection.

Conditions and Exclusions

The following conditions and exclusions apply to all disposition authorities in this schedule.

1. Agencies must offer any records covered by this schedule that were created prior to January 1, 1921, to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) before applying disposition instructions in this schedule, except records covered by items 120 and 130. Agencies must offer records covered by items 120 and 130 to the National Archives if they were created prior to January 1, 1939.
2. This schedule does not apply to records related to federal law enforcement activities and federal correctional activities (including records about their uniforms and equipment, body camera records, criminal surveillance records, records on accidents or incidents in incarceration or detention facilities, etc). Law enforcement and correctional functions differ from security functions and include border and transportation security and immigration and naturalization services. For additional description of these activities, see the FAQs for GRS 5.6. Agencies engaging in these activities must schedule such records on agency-specific schedules.
3. This schedule does not apply to records related to securing data and information systems. GRS 3.2, Information Systems Security Records, covers such records.
4. This schedule does not apply to records about protecting and accessing information. GRS 4.2, Information Access and Protection Records, covers such records.
