

Managing Government Records Directive: A Grand Challenge for Industry

Seeking Affordable Automated Solutions for Managing Government Information

- Location: Archives I, McGowan Theater
- Date: Tuesday, September 10, 2013
- Time: 9:00 to 12:30
- Pre-registration is required. Contact Specialevents@nara.gov to register
- Online access: <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/external-engagement>

Agenda

- 9:00 Welcome – Michael Wash, NARA CIO
- 9:05 Goal and Context: Managing Government Records Directive and Automated Solutions for Electronic Records Management – Meg Phillips, NARA External Affairs Liaison
- 9:30 Panel Discussion: The CIO Perspective on Automated Electronic Records Management
- Michael Wash, CIO of the National Archives and Records Administration (Moderator)
 - Bernard Mazer, CIO, Department of Interior (Panelist)
 - Robert Carey, Deputy CIO, Department of Defense (Panelist)
- 10:30 Break
- 10:45 Panel Discussion: Making it Work in Large and Small Agencies: the Records and Information Managers Perspective
- Donald Rosen, Director, Policy Analysis and Enforcement, Office of the Chief Records Officer, NARA (Moderator)
 - Deborah Armentrout, Records Officer, Nuclear Regulatory Commission (Panelist)
 - Paul Fontaine, Information Management Technical Lead, Federal Aviation Administration (Panelist)
 - Mark Peasley, Deputy Director of Administration, Office of the CIO, Department of Homeland Security (Panelist)
- 11:45 Call to Action: Request for Vendor Information – Paul Wester / Mike Wash
- 12:00 Questions and Discussion
- 12:30 Adjourn