Background Information Cooperative fire protection activities provide technical and financial assistance to the States, Territories, and Commonwealths, including distributing money through grants; providing technical expertise and facilitating Federal cooperative relationships; and assisting the Federal Emergency Management Agency in assisting States in the management of wildfire disasters. The objectives of cooperative fire protection are to maintain and improve fire protection efficiency and effectiveness on non-Federal wildlands; To achieve national benefits which exceed Federal expenditures for fire protection on non-Federal wildlands, particularly where wildland/urban interface issues exist; and To cooperate, participate, and consult with the States on fire protection for non-Federal wildlands. It is the policy of the Forest Service to encourage States to develop and maintain efficient and effective fire protection programs by providing financial and technical assistance.
