Background Information

The objectives of the Publicly Managed Recreation Opportunities program are to maximize opportunities for visitors to know and experience nature while engaging in outdoor recreation; develop and manage sites consistent with the available natural resources to provide, to the extent practicable, a safe, healthful, esthetic, non-urban atmosphere; provide a maximum contrast with urbanization at National Forest System sites; and evaluate and mitigate, as appropriate and practicable, natural hazards at developed recreation sites.

The Forest Service may charge standard amenity, expanded amenity, and special recreation permit fees in accordance with the Federal Lands Recreation Enhancement Act (REA) (16 U.S.C. 6801-6814), which authorizes the Forest Service to charge standard amenity and expanded amenity recreation fees at certain sites and for certain recreational services, and retain and spend revenues collected under the Act without further appropriation, in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
