The Trail, River and Similar Recreation Opportunities program provides recreation-related opportunities for responsible use of National Forests and National Grasslands; provides opportunities for a variety of recreational pursuits, with emphasis on activities that harmonize with the natural environment and are consistent with the applicable land management plan; and mitigates adverse impacts of recreational uses on natural, cultural, and historical resources and on other uses through education, outdoor ethics programs, and on-the-ground management, including law enforcement and restoration.

Trail, river, and similar recreation opportunities occur over broad expanses of land or water in natural settings and accommodate recreational activities that involve relatively low-density use and limited infrastructure. These activities include hiking, caving, rock climbing, mountaineering, over-snow vehicle (OSV) use, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, bicycling, off-highway vehicle (OHV) use, driving for pleasure, boating, hunting, and fishing.
