1. Individual Fire Report (FS 5100-29, DI-1202)

~~Narrative reports, maps and fire situation analyses documenting the long-term impact of fire on specific resources and operational lessons learned.~~

Supersedes Job No. N1-095-02-1.

PERMANENT. Cut off at end of calendar year in which report is submitted. Hold in host unit for 20 years. Transfer to NARA 20 years after cut off. Depending on local practice, and at the option of the host unit, Individual Fire Reports may be maintained and transferred with the Fire Package Incident History File (item 2 below).

2. Fire Package—Incident History File.

Records documenting significant events, actions taken, lessons learned and other information with long-term value for managing natural resources on Federal lands such as fire narrative reports, final incident situation summary reports, entrapment reports, transition plans, Final Statement of Costs, Wildland Fire Situation Analyses (WFSAs), delegations of authority tied to WFSAs, Fire Behavior Analyst Reports, raw weather data not captured elsewhere, news released, photos and infrareds, fire progression maps and final fire perimeter maps.

This series may also include records relating to joint operations and/or mutual aid, and copies of Incident reports and analyses prepared by agencies other than the Incident Management Team or host unit, records documenting significant interactions with communities affected by the incident, and selected reports of notes pertaining to high-level management and security issues not incorporated into the fire narrative.

For incidents involving use of wildland fire for resource management purposes, also includes Wildland Fire Implementation Plans (Stages I, II, and III) or equivalents.

Supersedes Job No. N1-095-02-1.

PERMANENT. Cut off at end of calendar year in which incident is terminated. Transfer to off site storage three years after cutoff. Transfer to NARA 20 years after cutoff.

3. Fire Package—Incident Administrative Records.

Records documenting the administrative and operational actions taken in the management of the incident, ~~such as daily action plans~~, internal briefings, interim status summary reports, inspection checklists, unit logs, worksheets, inventories, T-cards, resource orders, demobilization plans and checkout, cost estimates, agreements, fire behavior messages and forecasts, raw weather data captured elsewhere, safety reports and accident logs, firing plans, individual unit narratives, photos with no long-term value, and similar records pertaining to logistics, resources, air operations, safety, demobilization, claims, payments and litigation support.

Reports on individual wildland fires with information on location, extent, causes, dates, and times, suppression strategy, resources used, costs, fire effects, and other information needed to plan and manage fire and to access its effects on natural resources.

TEMPORARY. Cut off at end of calendar year in which incident is termination. Transfer to off site storage three years after cutoff. Destroy seven years after cutoff.

4. Electronic Mail and Word Processing Copies. Electronic copies of records created on electronic mail and word processing systems and used solely to generate the recordkeeping copy of the records covered by the other items in this schedule.

a. Copies that have no further administrative value after the recordkeeping copy is maintained.

TEMPORARY. Delete within 180 days after the recordkeeping copy has been produced, or when administrative use ceases, whichever is longer.

b. Copies used for dissemination, revision, or updating that are maintained in addition to the recordkeeping copy.

TEMPORARY. Delete when dissemination, revision, updating is completed, or when administrative use ceases.
