USDA Forest Service – SF 115

Disaster Management – Fire and Other Disasters – TEMPORARY RETENTION

What this schedule covers. This schedule designates appropriate retention of USDA FS administrative electronic data of temporary value produced as a result of the Disaster Management function. Data document administrative actions taken to prepare, mitigate, and prevent disasters and the results of any disaster incidents to which the Forest Service responds including, but not limited to, responses that use the Incident Command System. This schedule also includes records that document administrative actions related to wildland fire preparedness, prevention, presuppression, and mitigation (including prescribed fire and wildland fire use); wildland fire incident response; and recovery, rehabilitation, and restoration actions on damaged land resulting from fire or other disasters.

What this schedule does not cover. This schedule does not cover 1) permanent-value data; 2) data in systems and applications that are managed by other Federal agencies or non-Federal entities even if the systems and applications are used by the FS during a fire or other disaster; 3) data covered by NARA-issued General Records Schedules (GRS), which address records of primarily administrative use that are common to most agencies; 4) data generated as a result of FS-wide functions beyond management of fire and other disasters (e.g., procurement, financial management, property and supplies, personnel administration, legal and litigation functions, and law-enforcement); and 5) data generated as a result of the Aviation Management function since the FS uses aircraft for activities beyond those related to disasters.

1. Preparedness, Prevention, and Mitigation
Temporary-value data used for administrative purposes that support development of policy relating to disaster preparedness, prevention, mitigation, response and recovery; strategic planning; managing risk; and developing budgets. In addition, these data aid administrative tasks related to assessing and forecasting fire potential; reducing the risk of fire and fire severity, such as through presuppression activity, hazardous fuels reduction, and wildland fire use; and assessing historical trend data such as weather pattern and climate information.
1A. Data that support administrative activities related to preparedness, prevention, mitigation, and planning and that do not have long-term value.
1A1. Inputs	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/2a(4)
1A2. Master data files	Disposition: TEMPORARY. Cut off at end of calendar or fiscal year (whichever is appropriate) in which data were entered. Destroy/delete no sooner than 7 years after cut off.
1A3. Outputs 1A3a. Convenience and Reference Reports Periodic and on-demand reports printed to paper or digital media containing portions, summaries, and analyses of the data and used for convenience, reference, or distribution. 1A3b. Record and Case File Reports Periodic and on-demand reports printed to paper or digital media containing portions, summaries, and analyses of the data and filed in a case file or as a record copy and used to document a program, activity, or decision.	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/16 Disposition: Retain for the specified retention period of case file or records where reports are filed.
1A4. System Documentation	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/11a(1)

2. Incident Response and Post-Incident Actions
2A. Data that document the daily operations of a disaster or wildland fire incident and addresses short- and medium-term administration needs. Data relate to incident status; fire or other behavior modeling, simulation, and prediction to help determine management strategies and tactics; assessment of real-time and near real-time situations to support decision making; and financial management including procurement, ordering and allocating resources, property and inventory control, and cost accounting.
2A1. Inputs	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/2a(4)
2A2. Master data files	Disposition: TEMPORARY. Cut off at end of calendar year in which data were entered. Destroy/delete no sooner than 7 years after cut off.
2A3. Outputs 2A3a. Convenience and Reference Reports Periodic and on-demand reports printed to paper or digital media containing portions, summaries, and analyses of the data and used for convenience, reference, or distribution. 2A3b. Record and Case File Reports Periodic and on-demand reports printed to paper or digital media containing portions, summaries, and analyses of the data and filed in a case file or as a record copy and used to document a program, activity, or decision.	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/16 Disposition: Retain for the specified retention period of case file or records where reports are filed.
2A4. System Documentation	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/11a(1)

3. Recovery, Rehabilitation, and Restoration (Note: See also schedule for Environmental Management/Environmental Remediation)
3A. Data that document short- and medium-term administrative activities that support recovery, rehabilitation, and restoration actions and that do not have long-term value.
3A1. Inputs	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/2a(4)
3A2. Master data files	Disposition: TEMPORARY. Cut off at end of calendar or fiscal year (whichever is appropriate) in which data were entered. Destroy/delete no sooner than 7 years after cut off.
 3A3. Outputs 3A3a. Convenience and Reference Reports Periodic and on-demand reports printed to paper or digital media containing portions, summaries, and analyses of the data and used for convenience, reference, or distribution. 3A3b. Record and Case File Reports Periodic and on-demand reports printed to paper or digital media containing portions, summaries, and analyses of the data and filed in a case file or as a record copy and used to document a program, activity, or decision. 	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/16 Disposition: Retain for the specified retention period of case file or records where reports are filed.
3A4. System Documentation	Disposition: TEMPORARY. GRS 20/11a(1)
