DISPOSITION REQUEST

JOB NUMBER N1-095-87-02

ITEM COUNT 4

SUMMARY

This job consists of Chief & Staff Notes and Standard Sessions of the U.S. Forest Service.

Chief & Staff Notes, prepared daily, record the daily information sharing meeting held each morning by the Chief of the Service and primary Washington Office personnel. A five year segment of this series was appraised as permanent and accepted under Job No. N3-95-86-1.

Standard Sessions are agendas documenting the issues the Chief and Staff make decisions. These sessions are held every two to three weeks by the Chief and Primary Washington Office staff. The agenda consists of the subject, decision needed and decision made and are circulated to the staffs for informational purposes. When this and the Chief & Staff Notes are taken together, these two series give a detailed picture of the major issues dealt with by the top managers of the Forest Service and the policy decisions they eventually make. While individual reports may be sketchy, following an issue from day to day can fill out the story and provide adequate detail.

The Washington office copies are to be transferred to the National Archives; all other copies are to be destroyed. I recommend approval of this job.
