	The Forest Service directive system is composed of the Forest Service Manual (FSM) and Forest Service Handbooks (FSH). The directive system provides legal authorities, objectives, policies, responsibilities, delegations, standards, instructions, and procedures that are continuing, and that apply to more than one subunit of the issuing unit. The Directive Group Leader, Administrative Management Staff, is the Directive Manager for the Chief. This staff coordinates all directives at the Washington Office level regardless of functional origin or application. The coordination responsibility includes final review and approval of adherence to directives standards such as coding, writing format, duplication, and conflict. Regional Foresters, Station Directors, and Area Directors are required to designate directives managers and coordinators for issuances of directives to subunits. This schedule covers records under the 1100 series. It supersedes Job No. NC1-95-78-4, approved January 27, 1978.		6 items
