Records designated for permanent retention must be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer. Description: The Web site is a resource providing information about the Agency, providing services to the public or internal employees and contractors, and supporting the mission of Agency programs. The Web site is also used to distribute software programs, models, and textual, video, sound or images files. This schedule covers records such as software used to maintain the site (Site Publisher, Dream Weaver etc.), the content on the site, site management documentation, and backend systems that are not covered by other schedules. It applies to the Internet, intranet, extranet and portals.

The www.nrcs.usda.gov website is maintained by the Office of the Chief Information Officer (OCIO), Web Development Branch, which is responsible for the technology requirements associated with the website

Web content records are covered by the applicable records schedules for the functions they support. If the Web content records are unique and not covered by existing schedules, they must be scheduled separately

1. Site Management and Operations Files.

Includes reports, statistics, procedures and approvals

Disposition TEMPORARY Cutoff inactive records at the end of the calendar year Destroy 3 years after cutoff

2. Log Files.

Includes unprocessed log files, application logs, and similar files that are automatically created and maintained by a server to examine traffic patterns by time of day, day of week, referrer, or user agent. These data can be combined into a single file, or separated into distinct logs, such as an access log, error log, or referrer log. The files are not accessible to general Internet users, only to the webmaster or other administrative person

Disposition TEMPORARY Destroy when 1 year old

3. Web Content – Not Unique

Includes markup language, code, textual and audiovisual files, contextual hyperlinks, and content from backend systems used to generate static or dynamic content on the site(s), as well as screen captures and site snapshots when the record copy is captured elsewhere

Disposition TEMPORARY Destroy when superseded, obsolete, or no longer needed for agency business, whichever is later, but not longer than the retention of the record copy

4. Web Content – Unique

Includes markup language, code, textual and audiovisual files, contextual hyperlinks, and content from backend systems used to generate static or dynamic content on the site(s), as well as screen captures and site snapshots, when the record copy is captured elsewhere

a Records covered by existing schedules

Disposition Varies Follow the disposition instructions for the applicable records schedule

b Records not covered by existing schedules

Contact the NRCS Records Management Officer (RMO) to schedule the records

Note Web content records documenting NRCS operations, decisions, and actions that are needed to protect the legal and financial rights of the government and the public must be captured in a recordkeeping system and retained in accordance with the applicable records schedules
