2	Minutes of County and Community Committee Meetings Minutes of meetings of County Committees (COC's) and Community Committees (CMC's) held to carry out ASCS programs and to inform farmers and the local citizenry of these programs. COC's meet monthly in regular and executive sessions and its membership consists of farmers elected by other farmers in the county. Its duties include employing the County Executive Director (CED), directing ASCS county office operations, arranging for county office space, and coordinating with the State Committee. CMC's also consist of elected farmer members and represent individual communities within the county. They do not have regular meetings but may be called into session by the chairperson of the COC, among others. CMC's are responsible for assisting in carrying out programs assigned to the COC, informing farmers of the purposes and provisions of ASCS programs, conducting community meetings, and performing other duties as assigned by COC. CMC minutes often are filed along with or as attachments to COC minutes. Destroy when 5-years old.
