The role of RMA is to help producers manage their business risk through effective, market-based risk management solutions and to preserve and strengthen the economic stability of America’s agricultural producers. RMA operates and manages the FCIC in accordance with the Act.

This schedule is applicable to all records regardless of medium.

Reinsurance Agreements/Final Reinsurance Agreements

The Standard Reinsurance Agreement, Livestock Price Reinsurance Agreement, Aquatic Crop Reinsurance Agreement, and the Puerto Rico Agreement are cooperative financial assistance agreements between the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC) and the insurance company named on the agreement. FCIC is a wholly owned government corporation within USDA authorized to carry out actions and programs of the Federal Crop Insurance Act (FCIA). RMA has delegated authority to act on behalf of FCIC to deliver and administer all Federal crop insurance programs.

The reinsurance agreement establishes terms and conditions under which FCIC provides subsidies and reinsurance on eligible crop insurance contracts sold or reinsured by the insurance company. By regulation, each insurance company or its managing agent must be in good financial standing and comply with laws of the state where it is domiciled and in states where its business is written. Insurance companies are prequalified prior to participating.
