CENSUS PRETEST PLANNING AND MANAGEMENT FILES

As part of its planning for the decennial census, the Census Bureau conducts census enumerations of particular counties and cities and nationwide sample surveys in order to test sampling methodology, enumeration procedures, proposed questions and forms, processing techniques, etc. prior to the actual decennial census. These records document the origin scope, planning, content, procedures costs, and results of each individual pretest, and include the following: notes of meetings relating to the pretest; directives and issuances relating to policies and procedures; correspondence, memorandums, reports, and other records relating to sample or site selection, questionnaire content, methodology, enumeration problems, and findings; and post pretest studies relating to response variance, data, validity, methodology, and related topics.

Arranged either alphabetically or chronologically by census pretest and thereafter alphabetically by subject.

Disposition

A. Decennial Census Division Files

Incorporate significant records and reports that document the origin, scope, content, procedures, problems and results of the pretest into the official DECENNIAL CENSUS PLANNING FILES AND MANAGEMENT FILES. Such records include the following post-morters on the preceding census; reports on census pretests; record copy of all forms, instructions, manuals, and questionnaires; minutes and notes of meetings relating to the census; issuances and directives relating to policies and procedures; correspondence, memorandums, reports, and other records relating to questionnaire content,
