1. 73-144	The Decennial Census Division wishes to blank this file because it is no longer needed for the division's current programs. New York HVS From 1970 20% Decennial 4 III A Tapes This file is described in Entry No. 124 of NC1-29-79-7. This particular file is an extract file of approximately 34,000 New York City residents derived from the 20% sample of the 1970 Decennial Census. The file data consists of the sample census data plus certain calculations derived from the Census data such as gross rent as a percent of family income and family income as a percent of some unspecified income level. Apparently, this file was created for New York City authorities in lieu of conducting the New York City Housing and Vacancy Survey in a Census year. DESTROY IMMEDIATELY		1 ITEM

	Note: File Entry Nos. 4-6 were listed on NC1-29-77-2, and authorized for disposal because they were duplicated by III-A tapes. Unfortunately, attempts to copy the III-A tapes have been less than successful since much of the file data proved to be not copyable. In addition, the III-A tapes and the 8c9 copies made therefrom also lack the necessary documentation. Consequently, the Bureau seeks permission to destroy the II-A, III-A, and 8c9 copies of the above ASM files. Attached is a copy of memorandum outlining the procedures followed in copying II-A and III-A tapes.
