| | TRADE DEVELOPMENT PRESIDENT'S EXPORT COUNCIL The President's Export Council is a federal advisory committee that advises the President on matters relating to export expansion, export promotion, and trade policies and programs. The Council acts as liaison with the communities represented by its members and provides a forum for those communities on current and emerging problems and issues in the area of trade. The Council was established by Executive Order in 1973 and was originally composed of only business executives. The Council was reconstituted in 1979, by Executive Order 12131, to include leaders of the business, labor, and agriculture communities; members of the Senate and the House of Representatives; the Secretaries of Commerce, Labor, Agriculture, Treasury, and State; the Chairman of the Export-Import Bank of the United States; and the U.S. Trade Representative. The membership of the President's Export Council is designed to ensure that its recommendations represent a consensus of most segments of the economy. The high level of its members, and the fact that it reports to the President, make it the premier advisory committee on exports. Each President appoints his own members, who usually serve for the duration of a Presidential term, or approximately four years. | | |
