1. Trade Opportunities File - documentation accumulated to inform U.S. companies of export sales and/or overseas representation possibilities. Such opportunities are generally reported by U.S. commercial officers stationed abroad or by trade missions sent to specific countries to investigate potential trade/representation situations.

The file is principally comprised of processed forms and a smattering of correspondence, memoranda, operations memoranda and airgrams. Included among the former are GA-101:United States Trade Opportunity, a multi-part form; GA-594:Trade Mission Opportunities and Trade Opportunities Report of Action Taken; and IA-39B:Interview Report. Some administrative material such as weekly reports, printing requisitions and the like is also found.

Files arrangement is chronological, and thereunder, alphabetical by Post, Trade Mission or Commercial Exhibition. A few of the records are arranged numerically by BDSA commodity division number. These are evaluation copies of the original GA-101 prepared by staff members of the various commodity divisions to determine the commercial viability of the trade lead or overseas representative.

Inclusive dates range from 1962 through 1972.

Destroy immediately.

2. Chronological File - a copy of each piece of outgoing correspondence prepared by the International Liaison Staff. Dates range from 1962 through 1969 inclusive.

Destroy immediately.
