	Papers of Dr. Dear Brewster Judd - 1900-1972 These papers, from 1930s - 1972, are mostly reference and research materials relating to color and vision, created, received, purchased or otherwise accumulated by Dr. Judd of the National Bureau of Standards. Of the approximately 37 cubic feet, most was the personal property of the late Dr. Judd, consisting chiefly of books, journals, reprints of articles and personal correspondence. A small percentage is notes of experiments and official correspondence and memoranda, mostly with fellow scientists, professional societies, committees and journals, lighting engineers, curators of museums and suppliers of equipment. Most of this material is disposable as personal or non-record. It is proposed to declare the remainder disposable and, under the provisions of 41 CFR 101-11-408-3, to donate the entire collection as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>35 boxes to the Judd Memorial Collection at the Ohio State University.</li> <li>1 box to the Cooper-Hewitt Museum of the Smithsonian Institution</li> <li>1 box to the Dept. of Psychology, University of Pennsylvania.</li> </ul> All have agreed to a responsible stewardship.
