DESCRIPTION OF ITEM AND PROPOSED DISPOSITION

The Advisory Committee on the Public Interest Obligations of Digital Television Broadcasters (PIAC), (1997-1998).

The PIAC was established by Executive Order No. 13038. The Committee comprised of 22 members who were not officers or employees of the United States Government. The purpose of the Committee was to study and make recommendations on the public interest responsibilities that should accompany the broadcaster's receipt of digital television licenses. The Committee presented a final report to the Vice President on December 18, 1998, titled "Charting the Digital Broadcasting Future".

The Committee ceased on January 31, 1999. The National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) served as the Secretariat for the Committee.

The Benton Foundation—a non-profit organization that works to promote the effective use of communications technologies for all Americans— will serve as the legatee for the Committee. The Benton Foundation will act as the institutional memory tracking the debate on progress of the Advisory Committee's report and recommendations.
