OFFICE OF EXPORT ENFORCEMENT

1. SUBJECT FILES - These are records of correspondence that describe the enforcement programs, plans and activities initiated by the Director and his staff to carry out the provisions of the Export Administration Act and Regulations.

Disposition: PERMANENT - Cut off files at the end of the calendar year. Retire to Washington National Records Center (WNRC) 5 years after cut off. Transfer to NARA 20 years after cut off.

2. CHRONOLOGICAL, READING, TICKLER OR SUSPENSE FILES - These are extra copies of correspondence maintained for convenience of reference, or to indicate a due date for action. In some cases, these copies are removed and used for cross-reference and other purposes in subject files.

Disposition: TEMPORARY - Cut off files at the end of the calendar year. Destroy 3 years after cut off.

3. ASSISTANT DIRECTOR'S SUBJECT CORRESPONDENCE FILES - Contains correspondence, memoranda, reports, and related papers generated by the Assistant Director and his staff. These concern the management of investigations and similar activities carried out under the authority of the Export Administration Act and Regulations; liaison with other agencies and groups having mutual export enforcement concerns; and the development of procedures and plans for the conduct of investigations.

Disposition: PERMANENT - Cut off files at the end of the calendar year. Retire to WNRC 5 years after cut off. Transfer to NARA 20 years after cut off.

4. INVESTIGATIVE CASE FILES - These are papers and related documentation compiled in the process of collecting evidence on suspected or alleged violations of export controls. Each case concerns a violation or violations of the Export Administration Regulations and has been completed or closed. The cases are closed when all actions have been taken and the appropriate sanctions, if indicated, imposed.

a. Disposition: TEMPORARY - For documents submitted by individuals or companies that do not result in official actions, cut off files after final decision is made. Return to the submitter or destroy, whichever is appropriate.

b. Disposition: TEMPORARY - For documents submitted by individuals or companies that result in official action, cut off files after case has been completed and file in official investigative case file.

c. Disposition: TEMPORARY - Case Files - Cut off files at the end of the calendar year. Retire to WNRC 3 years after cut off. Destroy 15 years after cut off.

d. Disposition: TEMPORARY - Working papers - Cut off files after investigation is completed or case file has been closed. Destroy 3 years after cut off.

~~5. ECASS/ENFORCE - This is an historical database system designed to track current and past Export Enforcement case activity (namely, arrests, indictments, Temporary Denials Orders, closures, etc.) The primary function of Enforce is to: (1) maintain an accurate status of all investigative cases and provide easy access to such material; (2) provide monthly open investigation reports; and (3) provide quarterly and annual statistical data on all case activity.~~

Output from this system is distributed throughout OEE on a need-to-know basis. Various monthly reports are distributed only within OEE, and some quarterly and annual reports are distributed up to the Deputy Assistant Secretary level. Data from the quarterly reports are then used to prepare budget submissions, and other special publications and reports.

a. Disposition: TEMPORARY - Outputs: (1) Monthly and Ad Hoc Reports. Cut off file at the end of each fiscal year and destroy when 6 months old. (2) Quarterly/Annual Statistical Reports, cut off file at the end of the fiscal year.

b. Disposition: TEMPORARY - Hard Disk - Delete information when no longer needed for reference.

c. Disposition: TEMPORARY - Maintain system for the life of the program.
