	100 ADMINISTRATION INTRODUCTION. The records described within this series include records common to most DLA offices and mission records of certain staff support functions. The records common to most DLA offices are described in the 110 series; generally any records that do not directly pertain to mission accomplishment should be filed using one of these file numbers. The 110 series includes categories covering office reference files, office administration records, and supervisor's personnel files. The mission records for the staff support functions described in series 120 through 190 are for the staff support offices and are not intended for common use. 110 COMMON RECORDS. The records described within this series are generally found within each office and are retained to aid in the conduct of the internal management and other nonmission functions of the office. Files do not contain program records and generally require only administrative action. Mission and program records are described in other series.
1	110.10 Suspense Files. Records arranged chronologically as a reminder that an action is required on a given date or that a reply to action is expected and, if not received, should be traced on a given date. a. Manual or electronic control system. (Destroy after action is completed, or when no longer needed for analysis or follow-up inquiries, whichever is later.) b. The file copy or an extra copy of an outgoing communication, filed by the date on which a reply is expected. (Withdraw documents when reply is received. (1) If suspense copy is an extra copy, destroy immediately. (2) If suspense copy is the file copy, incorporate it into the official files.)	GRS 23/6
2	110.13 Reading Files. Extra copies of outgoing communications, including joint message forms, arranged chronologically, and maintained for reference. a. HQ DLA Executive Office - The Director's chronological file of outgoing correspondence signed personally by the Director or Deputy Director, DLA and copies of significant letters dispatched at lower levels but forwarded for personal information of the Director DLA - Permanent. b. Other Activities - Destroy after 1 year.	110.10 NC1-361- 76-4
