BACKGROUND

The purpose of this request is to establish an appropriate file number for special visits which are separate from inspections, surveys or audits. Presently these documents are filed under a functional file number according to the predominant purpose of the visit. The files are being maintained longer than necessary since functional file numbers have disposition standards of 5 years, 10 years and longer. Also, a particular visit may cover a wide range of subjects thus filing it in a separate and distinct file will facilitate retrieval in toto.

These files are maintained at ~~the [redacted]~~, Defense Logistics Agency ~~and the~~ field activities.

This is a new file number. Current disposition standard: None

These files are not covered in the GRS.

File No.	Description	Disposition
1301-03	Agreement files. Documents relating to agreements between elements of the Army, between the Army and other military services or Federal agencies, or between the army and other nonfederal organizations or agencies; but not with foreign countries. These agreements are negotiated to provide for continued understanding between recognized organizations and the Army for the purpose of providing or obtaining various types of support services. The services include logistic, medical, administrative, fire protection, facilities, and similar support on a one-time or continuing basis; and on a reimbursable or nonreimbursable basis. Included are agreements, agreement checklists, amendments, review comments, related correspondence, and similar documents.	Office requesting support and office providing support: agreements involving transfer of personnel spaces and materiel will be destroyed 6 years after supersession, cancellation, or termination of the agreement. Agreements not involved in transfer of personnel spaces and materiel will be destroyed 3 years after supersession, cancellation, or termination of the agreement. Reviewing offices: Destroy 1 year after supersession, cancellation, or termination of the agreement. Earlier destruction is authorized.
1301-04	Orientation and briefing files. Documents used in orientations and briefings given to visitors and newly assigned individuals about the mission, functions, and physical layout of an office. Included are photographs, transparencies or vugraphs, copies of specially prepared handouts, and related or similar documents.	Destroy on supersession or obsolescence.
1301-05	Committee files. Documents relating to establishing, operating, and dissolving committees which consider, advise, take action, and report on specifically assigned functions. They include joint, interdepartmental, and international committees in which the Department of the Army participates; as well as committees within all echelons and elements of the Army. Included are proposals, approvals, and disapprovals to establish the committee; charters, terms of reference, and comments on them; directives establishing, changing, continuing, or dissolving the committee; documents nominating, approving, appointing, and relieving committee members; notices, agenda, minutes, and reports of committee meetings; and related documents.	Office of committee chairman or secretariat, whichever is designated office of record, and offices of members of international committees in which a foreign government is office of record: Permanent. Cut off when no longer needed for current operations. Offices of other committee members: Destroy when no longer needed for current operations.
1301-06	Staff visit files. Documents relating to scheduled or special visits (but not inspections, surveys, or audits) for the purpose of performing staff or technical supervision or for conducting studies. This definition is not applicable to visits made in connection with a specific process or case which should be filed with documentation of the case or process. Included are requests for permission to visit, reports of visits, recommendations, and other directly related documents.	Office performing visit: Destroy 1 year after completion of next comparable visit or on completion of related study. Office visited: Destroy after 2 years, except files relating to recurring staff visits will be destroyed on completion of the next visit.
1301-07	Reference paper files. Documents used to facilitate, control, or supervise the performance of a specific function, process or action—as distinguished from those official records necessary for documenting performance of a function, process, or action. Although accumulated reference papers may relate to varied subjects and functions, they should bear a title relating them to the functions, subfunction,	Army schedule

DSD Schedule

Reference Paper Files. Documents used to facilitate, control, or supervise the performance of a specific function, process, or action as distinguished from those official records necessary for documenting performance of a function, process, or action they are used with.
