Background Information

The NGA Police K9 (Canine) protective services provides protection and security of all elements of NGA facilities and personnel. The K9 program consist of multiple teams of a Police officer aka "Handlers" and a properly certified canine "Police Dogs" trained in detection and identification of dangerous materials that may present a threat to NGA facilities and personnel. This record schedule pertains to all the records accumulated and or prepared by the K9 handler that are placed in the Police K9 folder during daily operations, training, K9 health and performance. Records that initiate an official criminal or administrative investigation will follow the disposition of the investigative case file.
