	PERSONNEL INVESTIGATIONS FILES (Table 205-3) The purpose of this submission is to establish disposition standards for documentation that is authorized for retention in support of the Presidential Support records systems. The two records systems are: a. The Nomination Files of personnel evaluated for Presidential Support duties to include all records from the time of nomination to final selection or to the final determination of non-selection. These files are collected to evaluate the background, character, suitability and qualifications of nominees being considered for selection to positions requiring contact with the President or access to the Presidential facilities or modes of transportation. b. Assignment Records Files for individuals approved, which include a new, revised approval letter and quarterly listings of all selected or assigned personnel by unit, by major command. They are originated to locate, identify, control and administer individuals selected for assignments to Presidential Support duties; to identify and process reassignments from one position to another; identify and process individuals requiring update investigations; to initiate assign- ments after final selection, and to prepare the quarterly listing of individuals selected and assigned to the program.

These programs apply to all Air Force military and civilian employees and applicants nominated or assigned to authorized designated positions involving Presidential Support duties on a full or part-time basis.

The recommended retention period will adequately serve all administrative and legal requirements by the Air Force.
