1. COMBAT OPERATIONS REPORTS, 1950-53 (AFM 12-50, Table 55-6, Rule 1)

Samples Submitted

Located in various accessions at the National Personnel Records Center (Military), St. Louis, Missouri, are 68 cubic feet of unclassified Air Force operations reports dating from 1946 through 1953. The following disposition is proposed for these reports.

Unclassified combat operations reports prepared by individual pilots and documenting the participation of their plane crews in various combat mission during the Korean War. Included in the reports are descriptions of combat actions, objectives, accomplishments, results, loss of personnel and materiel, and other such information regarding combat missions. They total approximately 6 1/2 cubic feet in volume. It is believed that because of their subject matter, these reports possess sufficient value to historians and others to warrant permanent archival preservation.

DISPOSITION: Permanent. Offer to the National Archives.

Immediately.

Arranged by organization and then under by date of report.
sent to agency and NPRC - 3/3/77 JP
