1	SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS AND OPERATIONS (124-4) (Applicable Air Force-Wide) The attached table 124-4 has been revised and rearranged to differentiate between the primary types of documentation accumulated in support of Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI) major investigative activities, i.e., substantive investigations, operations/collections/surveys, source documents, and support records. The current files have been changed and identified by a star preceding the text. The 3 months retention period for rule 4 is considered adequate as the information has little value beyond assisting commanders, at the time the information is obtained, in screening personnel who desire access or positions on military installations. The files are not used for security clearance actions. These files are seldom, if ever, referred to as they have no usefulness after review by the requesting authority. The retention period for rules 7, 8 and 9 is sufficient. If the investigation is favorable, regardless of whether the marriage takes place or not, 1 year is adequate to process any inquiries received relating to the investigation. If the investigation is unfavorable, wherein the marriage takes place, the potential risks involving national welfare, safety, or security would warrant a longer retention period than the favorable ones. Therefore, 5 years (rule 6) at HQ AFOSI is considered adequate to allow sufficient response to AFOSI investigative mission and responsibilities.	NN 170-33 NC1-330-76-1
