	Located at the National Personnel Records Center (Military) St. Louis, Missouri, are Army organizational records generally dating from the late 1940's through the 1960's. These records are now being reviewed for the purpose of determining their ultimate disposition. The submission of this SF 115 is a part of this effort. This schedule covers only those records located in NPRC created by the Army Information Digest. Consequently, it is not applicable to current records. Unless otherwise noted, the disposition numbers cited correspond to those in AR 340-18.		2 items

The following series located at NPRC have not been described in this schedule because they have already been appraised as permanent.

Operating Program Progress Reports, ca. 1963-64, 12 in.
Standard Operating Procedures, ca. 1953-54, 1 in.

Items in this Schedule

1. Army Information Digest
2. Troop Information Administrative Files

1. Army Information Digest record copies, ca. 1946-62, 18 in.

The Army Information Digest, the Official U.S. Army Magazine, contains an array of information and articles written by prominent military personnel, and others regarding Army policy, plans, operations, and technical developments. The Digest also provided a forum for the Secretary of the Army and the Chief of Staff to express their views on topics they deemed important and to convey information Army-wide. Also included is information regarding published reading material of professional interest to U.S. Army personnel, prepared by the Army Library, and training aid information for commanders and others charged with training responsibilities.

2. Troop Information Administrative Files, ca. 1956-63, 4 in. 404-01

Memorandums for members of the Army Information Digest Review Committee which contain the minutes of the committee meetings. Information contained in these files includes the names of those attending the committee meetings and those who were absent. The mission of the committee was to insure that the contents of the official U.S. Army Magazine were timely, of high caliber and in consonance with Department of the Army positions and policies.

Furthermore, the committee provided staff guidance to the editor, insured that Army information objectives were achieved, and insured that story ideas for future issues of the Magazine were developed. Other material in the memorandums includes listings of approved and disapprove articles, requests for story ideas, and editor progress reports. All significant information contained in these review committee meeting memorandums is found in the Digest record copies, which are recommended for permanent retention.

Destroy immediately upon approval of this schedule.
