1	Weekly Activity Reports, ca. 1960-62, 1/2 in. Weekly summations of activities of mission to Ecuador, showing meetings and conferences attended, classes taught, actions taken, and relations with host government. Permanent. Offer to NARS immediately upon approval of this schedule.
2	Standard Operating Procedures, ca. 1962-64, 1/4 in. Issuances establishing continuing policies, practices, procedures, responsibilities, standards, and instructions, either prescribed by higher authorities, or inherent in the nature of mission operations. Permanent. Offer to NARS immediately upon approval of this schedule.	227-01
3	Military Assistance Program Construction Projects, ca. 1955-60, 2 in. Letters, memorandums, reports, and other correspondence relating to construction projects in Ecuador, such as road-building and defense-related items. The projects were undertaken by the MAP Engineer Bn., and paid for by the governments of Ecuador and/or the U. S. The primary mission of the battalion was to increase the combat effectiveness of the U. S. and Ecuadoran military by means of general engineer work. Although the bulk of the material consists of correspondence about supplies, the series includes lengthy descriptions of projects planned and the reasons for them. Permanent. Offer to NARS immediately upon approval of this schedule.

4	General Correspondence Files, ca. 1948-58, 3.5 cu. ft. Letters, memorandums, reports, and other correspondence in English and Spanish relating to a wide variety of functions and activities of U. S. Army missions. The vast bulk of this correspondence concerns ephemeral transactions and procedures relating to the day-to-day operations of the creating unit, such as training classes; security clearances, shipping and transport of supplies, and personnel changes and transfers. Also included in the series, however, are items of more historic value, such as staff studies of social, economic, and military conditions of the host country, daily journals and command reports documenting mission activities, and information on the relationship between missions and other offices. The content of the series varies by country. This series item is applicable not only to centralized General Administrative Files, Subject Files, and Correspondence Files, but also to specific administrative files maintained by individual offices and identified on NPRC finding aids as Security, Procurement, etc. Administrative Files. This item is not applicable to those individual files which document long-range planning, organizational and policy matters, and which have previously been scheduled for permanent retention. In addition, this item is not applicable to specific series or portions of correspondence files described and provided for elsewhere in this schedule. _____ _____ _____ Permanent. Offer to NARS immediately upon approval of this schedule. _____ _____ _____	AR 345-220/18D and other items in the AR 345-200 series
