Background Information AR 735-5, Property Accountability Policies contains concepts and guidelines for establishing and maintaining the Command Supply Discipline Program (CSDP). The CSDP addresses supervisory and/or managerial responsibilities within the supply system from the user to the Army command (ACOM), Army service component command (ASCC), and/or direct reporting unit (DRU) level. AR 710-2 outlines the specific requirements for the CSDP. The CSDP is a compilation of existing regulatory requirements brought together for visibility purposes. It is directed at standardizing supply discipline throughout the Army. Also, the CSDP is meant to simplify command, supervisory, and managerial responsibilities. Simplification is accomplished by outlining the various requirements for responsible personnel, by standardizing requirements, and by formalizing follow-up procedures. AMC provides superior technology, acquisition support and logistics to ensure dominant land force capability for Soldiers, and the United States and its allies.

1 The Chemical Accountability Management Information System (CAMIN)
CAMIN provides the Army with a system that supports the inventory requirements for the US Stockpile of Chemical Ammunition and provide reports for Compliance with the Chemical Weapons Convention. No additional Capabilities or functionality. All chemical weapons described in the treaty and their associated data are required to be in CAMIN for storage, movement, inventory and destruction transactions. CAMIN is necessary to be available 24/7 for any chemical weapon movement, change or inspection by an international team. Users of the system belong to Chemical Materials Agency (CMA). CAMIN is developed using JAVA, JAVA Script, and JAVA Server Pages (JSP) and Oracle Reports and provides real time processing. CAMIN is supported by an Oracle database on a Sun platform and is operational 24/7 with minimal downtime for routine maintenance. CAMIN has a Tenant Security Plan (TSP) in place with the APG ICAN and inherits its accreditation by virtue of this TSP. The proponent of this system is Army Materiel Command (AMC). The system outputs are covered under RM 25-1mmm. Source input data is approved for disposition under RN 25-1kkk. The record number (RN) for this system is 735-5aa, ACRS 700A/PERM
