Background Information

Army Régulation (AR) that covers the function: 621-5, Education, Army Continuing Education System, 11 July 2006/RAR 6 September 2009. Office creating the records: Civilian and contract personnel assigned to all organizational offices. Office maintaining the records: Technical Information Center (TIC). Inclusive dates of records: 1980 - 2013. Volume number: 2 cubic feet. Tank Automotive Research Development Engineering Center (TARDEC) believes the academic papers identified for extended retention are beyond the scope of the general correspondence files addressed in disposition authority N1-AU-02-22. The academic papers contain significant information on problems and conditions that the organization has been tasked with solving. These papers are frequently used by the engineers, scientists, and researchers as resources for the continuation of computational analyses and further study of problems and issues in support of the Army ground vehicle fleet, both current and future. TARDEC provides engineering support for more than 2,800 Army systems and many of the Army's and DoD's top joint development programs, the extended retention of academic papers will allow the organization to maximize research activities to continue supporting development, transition, and sustainment of technologies and integration across ground systems.
