	designed to provide an accounting of all Army historical property to commanders and supervisors of Army museums, museum activities or historical collections and to the Center of Military History (CMH) for management purposes. This includes all artifacts and works of art in the custody of these museums (including provisional museums), museum activities, and historical collections (including those belonging to the U.S. Army Reserve and Army National Guard), and those items stored at the U.S. Army Historical Clearinghouse. Information on these items include identification data (description, condition, appraisal, registration, etc.), source (donor), and disposition (loan, location, exhibit, etc.) Disposition: PERMANENT. Code TP. Keep in the CFA until no longer needed for conducting business, then transfer a copy of the initial file to National Archives' custody when the record is 30 years old. Thereafter, transfer copies of significantly altered data by the CMH Museum Division in 5-year blocks when the latest record is 30 years old. Note: Use FN 25-1kkk for source/input records, 25-1lll for system administrative reports, 25-1nnn for backups, and 870-20c for system documentation and specifications.
2	FN: 870-20d Title Central Site Artifact Management System (CSAMS) Outputs and Reports Authority: TBD Privacy Act: A0870-5DAMH Description Outputs generated by the CSAMS consist of a variety of reports on the status of registered items in the Army's Historical & Art Central Collections. The reports are pulled by authorized users when needed (i.e., biennial/cyclic property (artifact, weapons, and sensitive items (other than weapons)) inventories, monitoring loan agreements (due-in/due-out dates), cataloging, asset/activity reporting, and collection management) These reports reflect the current (real-time) status of all historical properties within these collections at any given time or location Disposition: Code K6. Keep in the CFA until no longer needed for conducting business, but not more than 6 years, then delete or destroy
3	FN: 870-20e Title Central Site Artifact Management System (CSAMS) Documentation and Specifications Files Authority: TBD Privacy Act: NA Description Specifications and documentation to identify, service, interpret, use, and maintain the computer system, user applications, or electronic records for the CSAMS. Included are specifications, documentation, user guides and manuals on the hardware, network, operating system, and application software, database specifications, codebooks, and record layouts. Disposition: PERMANENT. Code TP. Keep in the CFA until no longer needed for conducting business, then transfer a copy of the files with the initial CSAMS master file (see FN 870-20c) to National Archives' custody when 30 years old. Thereafter, transfer any changes to the documentation with subsequent transfers of the data for this system.

Disposition Code TE7 Event is when individual data entries are superseded by new information or rescinded by permanent transfer, salvage, or other final disposition of the property, unless otherwise directed by the Chief of Military History. Keep until the event occurs and then until no longer needed for business, then transfer to the RHA/AEA. The RHA/AEA will destroy or delete the record when it is 7 years old. Note: Use FN 25-1kkk for source/input records, 25-1lll for system administrative reports, 25-1mmm for system documentation and specifications, and 25-1nnn for backups. [Amended by R Wire per S Bunting, 10/30/2002]
