1	THE ARMY FAMILY ADVOCACY PROGRAM AR 608-18 Background The current means of keeping records for "did not meet criteria" child and spouse cases are held under RN 608-18a2 for both children and adult. The licensing boards for some states require that children's records be kept 18 years, plus 5 (up to 23 years) and adult record be kept 5 years. DoD has stated that this is an internal Army issue and the Service may determine the record keeping standard. The proposed disposition instruction for the following record numbers applies to records in all media and formats: RN 608-18a2 Title Family Advocacy Case Records, Adults (Did Not Meet Criteria) Authority N1-330-01-2 PA: A0608-18DASG Description: Documents relating to Family Advocacy (FAP) cases that "did not meet criteria" for adult abuse or neglect under the provisions of the FAP. Included are records of referral, intake documents, information papers, victim preference statements, risk assessments, social histories, psychosocial assessments, assessment tools, statements, case management notes, medical reports, investigative reports, community collaborative efforts, treatment and safety planning, Case Review Committee (CRC) minutes and recommendations, email, and other related documents. Disposition: KE5 Event is after the end of the calendar year in which the case is closed. Keep in CFA until event occurs, then destroy 5 years after the event. Note: During the period of retention, if there is a new report on the same family within days or weeks, the record may be used to provide demographic and assessment information about the family so that the family need not be totally reassessed.	N1-330-01-2, Item 21b
