REQUEST FOR RECORDS DISPOSITION AUTHORITY

Three new record series, not previously contained in the Army's records schedules.

FN 350-7a
Title: Task analyses
Description: Front end analyses which identify and describe collective and/or individual tasks to enable training development that will produce soldiers and units to accomplish their wartime missions. Included are examinations of threat, doctrine, organization, and equipment: tactical unit evaluations; unit mission analyses; identification of tasks for training; training site recommendations; and related information.
Disposition: Permanent. Offer to the National Archives in five-year blocks after 20 - 25 years.

FN 350-7b
Title: Task analyses background files
Description: Background materials on task analyses accumulated and maintained for reference and audit trail purposes.
Disposition: Destroy after 3 years, or when no longer needed for administrative purposes, whichever is later.

FN 350-7c
Title: Training development files
Description: Training development products which analyze learning and develop materials required for training units and/or soldiers. Included are learning analyses [which establish what must be learned, what is necessary for mastering objectives, job performance aids, the best events and their sequence, and the methods and media to conduct training], target population descriptions, tests, training aids, training materials, validation records and course control documentation.
Disposition: Permanent. Offer to the National Archives in five-year blocks after 20 - 25 years.
