1 Military personnel survey files (MARKS 600-46a/TAFFS 719-01)

The disposition instructions provided on the attached page modify the standards approved in NCI-AU-78-63 to provide for the offer to the National Archives of microdata (and related documentation). This schedule also makes minor changes in the series description to more accurately describe records.

*Copy sent to Agency,
NCF, NMX, NMT 3/12/90*

Periodic personnel surveys of the military population pertaining to such matters as characteristics, opinions, attitudes, relationships, social systems, and similar subjects. Included are questionnaires, work papers, microdata and associated documentation (codebooks, record layouts, etc.), reports, summaries, and other records.

(a) Office performing Army-wide responsibility:

(1) Final reports: PERMANENT. Transfer one copy to the National Archives upon completion of study.

(2) Microdata and associated documentation: PERMANENT. Offer to the National Archives when final report is completed. NARA will accession records it determines to be historically valuable. Records evaluated by NARA as lacking historical value will be destroyed when no longer needed.

(3) All other records: Destroy when no longer needed.

(b) Other offices: Destroy when no longer needed.
