DISCUSSION: This request for early destruction approval applies only to records collected from this particular activity and is not to be applied to other TSI records scheduled under job N1-AU-94-13. In classified February 15, 1995, letter, the Attorney General approved the destruction of this material after the lapse of five years. All these records exceed the five year period. The records are stored in the Investigative Records Repository, Fort George G. Meade, MD. Questions concerning the records should be referred to Henry Persons (301) 677-6410.
