Disposition:
Office having Army-wide responsibility: Permanent.* Other offices: Destroy when superseded, obsolete, or no longer needed for current operations.

* Return to RECORDS CENTER WHEN 2 YRS. OLD.

In accordance with this agency's review of all records within the Department of the Army which are designated as "permanent" records, a re-evaluation of records maintained under FN 204-01, Emergency Planning Files, revealed that the retention period for these files cannot be reduced. These files accumulate in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations and Plans and document actions to be taken during domestic disturbances, disasters, civil defense emergencies and any other emergency for which a detailed plan of action is required in advance. Request authority to continue the "permanent" designation for these records. Records will be offered to the National Archives after twenty-five (25) years.
