Included are reports of unusual occurrences and related documents. Disposition: Destroy in CFA after 7 years. Request authority to establish new disposition standard described above for Medical Facility Incident Reporting Files. These records are now being maintained under the Nursing Service subfunction, FN 915-07, AR 340-18-9 for a period of 50 years. The retention of incident reports is necessary only for the statute of limitation period; seven years being the maximum. Documentation supporting complications and treatment given in unusual incidents is retained in the military clinical record for 50 years and 25 years for civilians. These records should be transferred from the Nursing Service subfunctional category to Medical Treatment Facility Reporting File subfunctional category since the governing regulation, AR 40-407, requires that record copies of these reports be maintained in the office of the hospital commander.
