Maneuver and Right-of Entry Permit Files (FN 1504-22).

Description - Documents relating to obtaining permission from land owners and managers to allow Government personnel and/or equipment to enter, pass over, explore, or temporarily use such lands. Included are permits and agreements, such as right-of-entry for purposes of survey or exploration, right-of-entry for purposes of construction, right to pass over, and similar permits or agreements with related correspondence.

Disposition - Permits or agreements involved in claims: Dispose of IAW file number 1504-16 or the appropriate file number in AR 340-18-4.

Remaining files: CONUS: Destroy 2 years after cancellation or termination of permit or agreement. OCONUS: Destroy when no longer needed for current operations or 2 yrs. after cancellation or termination of permit or agreement, whichever is later.

Background - The above disposition standard has been modified to provide for overseas operations. In these operations, the host countries retain their copies of the documents longer than the disposition presently contained in FN 1504-22, AR 340-18-15. When negotiating new permits or agreements, the host countries will usually resurrect information or positions established on previous permits or agreements that have since expired or been canceled. The Army must retain their permits or agreements longer in overseas operations in order to be responsive to the problem and in a positive posture. The above disposition provides the necessary flexibility.
