SECTION III - APPRAISER'S COMMENTS

This schedule provides for Army military personnel records (MPR's) to be offered to NARS 75 years after the separation of the individual (which, in fact, means 75 years after retirement to NPRC). At that time, the National Archives, in consultation with the Army, historians, genealogists, and other concerned parties, will determine the ultimate disposition of the MPR's. All or some MPR's will be designated archival and accessioned into the Archives' holdings. Any MPR not selected for archival preservation will be disposed of either through donation or destruction. Currently, there are approximately 420,000 cubic feet of Army MPR's at NPRC.

Note: NC1-AU-76-14 authorized the conversion of the hardcopy MPR to microfilm.
