NAVAL SECURITY AND INVESTIGATIVE COMMAND INVESTIGATIVE RECORDS

1. The NAVSECINVCOM Investigative Records includes those investigative and related counterintelligence activities which are undertaken to safeguard Department of Defense, specifically Department of the Navy, information, personnel, functions and installations. This request for authority to microfilm records described in attachment (1) is applicable to NAVSECINVCOM components which engage in, or maintain, investigative records of the Defense Investigative Program activities (Reference NC1-330-76-1).
2. Records excluded from filming will be those dated in the current year plus the preceding three years. The original record will be disposed of after the microfilm has been quality checked/verified. Storage conditions for the reference print and the master print will be in accordance with standards set forth by the American National Standards Institute.
3. Two original prints will be made, one being used for reference and one retained as the master film. "This certifies that records described on this form will be microfilmed in accordance with the standards set forth in 36 CFR Part 1230 and 41CFR 101-11.506."

(13 items)

1. NSIC Investigative/Operational Case Files. Includes personnel security data on members of the Armed Forces, DoD civilian employees, and contractor employees under the Defense Industrial Security Program; data on activities threatening the security, or involving the disruption or subversion, of DoD military and civilian personnel, functions, activities, installations, information, communications, equipment and supplies; data on investigative activities authorized in connection with civil disturbance responsibilities within the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and United States territories and possessions.

a. Files relating to DoD-Affiliated Civilian/Military Members. Disposable. Retention periods for investigative records will be as follows:

(1) Routine Investigations. Personnel security investigations of a favorable nature and other investigations of a minor nature. Disposable. Destroy 15 years after the date of the last action. Personnel security files on persons who are considered for affiliation with DoD will be destroyed after 1 year if the affiliation is not completed.

(2) Significant Incidents or Adverse Actions. Personnel security investigations resulting in an adverse personnel action or court-martial, or other investigation of a significant nature which resulted in widespread public or Congressional interest. Disposable. Destroy 25 years after the date of the last action. Those files determined to be of possible historical value may be offered to the National Archives after 15 years.

(3) Criminal Investigation Reports and Counter-intelligence Reports of a non-significant nature. Reports of felony or similar type offenses and security violations. Destroy 25 years after the date of the latest action unless report has historical value in which case it will be offered to the National Archives after 25 years.

(4) Major Investigations. Investigations of espionage and sabotage, or other major investigations of a counterintelligence/security nature. Permanent. Offer to the National Archives within 25 years after the date of the last action.

b. Files relating to non-DoD Affiliated U.S. Citizens/Organizations or Foreign Nationals.

(1) Activities or events posing one of the following types of continuing threats to DoD military and civilian personnel and Defense activities and installations: Demonstrated hostility - activities in which an actual example of violent or criminal hostility has been carried out within the previous year; threatened hostility - activities which during the previous year have explicitly threatened DoD functions; potential hostility - activities whose continuing hostile nature in the vicinity of DoD installations provides a significant potential source of harm or disruption of the installation or its function; dissidence activities - activities during the previous year which have involved actively encouraging violation of law, disobedience of lawful order or regulations, or disruption of military activities.

(2) Special Investigations/Operations. Files or other documentation originated by DoD components pertaining to those activities of non-DoD affiliated organizations/individuals which potentially or actually threatened DoD functions, property or personnel and files or other documentation relating to Defense Investigative Program (DIP) approved measures to quell or counter these activities. Permanent. Offer to the National Archives within 25 years after the date of the last action.

(3) Organizations/Individuals Servicing DoD Installations.
