	NOTE: This schedule ONLY applies to F-14 records. The purpose of this records schedule is to request legal disposition of the Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR) records relating to the F-14 aircraft. Included are paper records (not scanned) previously scheduled according to N1-NU-84-2 and identified in SECNAV M-5210.1; paper records scanned; and records that have been scanned and/or created in various multimedia formats, including Portable Document Form (PDF), databases, and audio visual Vertical Helical Scan (VHS) records. The records in this records schedule are held either by the Federal Records Centers (paper records not scanned) or the F-14 Program Office at NAVAIR (all other records). Records at the two facilities are not duplicates. The F-14 Program Office is being decommissioned effective September 30, 2006. These records span from 1979-2006 and relate to F-14 weapons and materials and to the development and readiness of these weapons and materials for all naval forces. They are accumulated by aeronautical activities and offices and by units and departments or activities and offices that are concerned with aeronautical and astronautical materials and related functions. [At the time of transfer of the F-14 records, the following Department of Defense (DoD) Distribution statements apply to certain SSICs, identified within the items' text:  Distribution A – Approved for public release  Distribution B – Distribution to U. S. government agencies only  Distribution C – Distribution to government agencies and their contractors only  Distribution D – Distribution to DOD and U.S. DOD contractors only  Distribution E – Distribution to DOD components only  Distribution F – Further dissemination only as directed
