SF 115 Requests for Records Disposition Authority with National Archives and Records Administration (NARA):

OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR PERSONNEL & READINESS (OUSD) (P&R), DEFENSE HUMAN RESOURCES ACTIVITY (DHRA), DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE MANPOWER DATA CENTER (DMDC)

BACKGROUND: The Armed Services Military Accession Testing System is under the purview of the DHRA, DMDC. The system establishes eligibility for enlistment, verifies enlistment and placement scores, verifies retest eligibility, and provides aptitude test scores as an element of career guidance to participants in the DoD Student Testing Program. The data is also used for research, marketing evaluation, assessment of manpower trends and characteristics, and related statistical studies and reports. The data is used on a continuing basis for the purpose of regeneration of scores and reclassification, score quality evaluation, and miscellaneous research activities. The system contains copies of test source materials. Master copies of test booklets are maintained in the ASVAB Master Test File, which will be submitted separately.

This applies to high school, college, National Civilian Community Corps, and vocational students who have participated in the DoD Student Testing Program (STP), as well as civilian applicants to the military services and active duty Service members.

Inputs include but are not limited to Individual's name, Social Security Number, address, telephone number, date of birth, sex, ethnic group identification, educational grade, rank, booklet number of ASVAB test, test date, individual's plans after graduation, and individual item responses to ASVAB subtests, and test scores. Test source materials will be destroyed when no longer needed for reference purposes in accordance with GRS 20 Item 2c.

System interfaces include but are not limited to the DOD Military Services personnel systems (EMPRS, MCTFS, etc.) and MEPCOM system. The DMDC database (N1-330-03-1) is the archive of the Service personnel systems and also collects the test scores (GRS 20 Item 2c).

Outputs include but are not limited to research, marketing evaluation, assessment of manpower trends and characteristics, and related statistical studies and reports. The statistical studies and reports are for use by the OUSD (P&R) in policy and decision making. The primary use of the data is for development of new test materials (GRS 20 Item 5).
