has been carried out within the previous year; threatened hostility - activities which during the previous year have explicitly threatened DoD functions; potential hostility - activities whose continuing hostile nature in the vicinity of DoD installations provides a significant potential source of harm or disruption of the installation or its function; dissidence activities - activities during the previous year which have involved actively encouraging violation of law, disobedience of lawful order or regulation, or disruption of military activities. Disposable as follows:

(a) Information which falls in the above categories that is originated by, and received or acquired from, agencies outside the DoD, will be destroyed not later than 1 year after acquisition unless validated for retention for another year when it is determined during the annual verification review by the Secretaries of the Military Departments that a continued threat exists.

(b) Files or other documents created within DoD which contain significant analytical comments, value judgments or recommendations pertaining to information received or acquired from agencies outside the DoD shall be retained for a period not in excess of 1 year after acquisition, unless validated on an annual basis for continued retention. When DoD originated information is not validated for continued retention, these files will be offered to the National Archives for a determination of their historical value.

(2) Activities or events not posing a continuing threat. Information originated, and received or acquired from, agencies outside the DoD during the course of routine investigative or liaison activity which after receipt is subsequently determined to fall outside the area of interest of the DoD, or which is determined not to pose a threat to DoD personnel, property or functions and no DoD file is created or DoD information generated. Disposable.
