findings report. School activities shall include, but not be limited to, PTSA, elementary school homeroom mothers' activities funds, student clubs, sports events, concerts, etc.

1. Record location and disposition files. Documents reflecting files that have been transferred or retired. Included are records shipment lists and record transfer lists (including SF 135s).

Organization retiring records: Destroy after all records listed thereon have been destroyed. Upon inactivation of a school forward to the gaining school or regional office for remaining period.

603-02-1.3 Agreement Files: Documents relating to agreements between DoDDS and the military services or Federal agencies, or between DoDDS and other non-federal organizations or agencies; but not with foreign countries. These agreements are negotiated to provide for continued understanding between recognized organizations and DoDDS for the purpose of providing or obtaining various types of support services. The services include logistic, medical, administrative, fire protection, facilities, payroll, and similar support on a onetime or continuing basis; and on a reimbursable or non-reimbursable basis. Included are agreements, agreement checklists, amendments, review comments, related correspondence, and similar documents.

Copies of agreements which are retained at the school level and which do not involve a transfer of manpower/personnel spaces. DISPOSITION: Destroy three years after supersession, cancellation, or termination of the agreement. Copies of agreements not involving a transfer of manpower/personnel spaces which are maintained at the regional offices or the DoDDS central office. DISPOSITION: Retain for at least 10 years if they contain information as to the cost of support services. Copies of agreements involving transfers of manpower/personnel spaces. DISPOSITION: Retain until the entire support arrangement is terminated without supersession by a subsequent or larger agreement. This is necessary because manpower spaces thus transferred are subject to return to the transfer or upon reduction/termination of support services.

DESCRIPTION

DISPOSITION

- 603-02-1.4 Orientation and Briefing Files: Documents used in orientations and briefings given to visitors and newly assigned individuals about the mission, functions, and physical layout of an office. Included are photographs, transparencies or vugraphs, copies of specially prepared handouts, and related or similar documents.
- 603-02-1.5 Staff Visit Files: Documents relating to scheduled or special visits (but not inspections, surveys, or audits) for the purpose of performing staff or technical supervision or for conducting studies. This description is not applicable to visits made in connection with a specific process or case which should be filed with documentation of the case or process. Included are requests for permission to visit, reports of visit, recommendations, and other directly related documents.
- 603-02-1.6 Reference Paper Files: Documents used to facilitate, control, or supervise the performance of a specific function, process, or action-as distinguished from those official records necessary for documenting performance of a function, process, or action. Although accumulated reference papers may relate to varied subjects and functions, they should bear a title relating them to the function, subfunction, process, or action they are used with. Reference paper files consist of the following types of documents:
- Destroy on supersession or obsolescence.
- Office performing visit: Destroy 1 year after completion of next comparable visit or on completion of related study.
- Office Visited: Destroy after 2 years, except files relating to recurring staff visits will be destroyed on completion of the next visit.
- Destroy after 1 year. However, documents in the active file that require additional action or relate to reopened cases should be brought forward for filing in the current file. Earlier destruction is authorized.

a. Notes, drafts, feeder reports, news clipping, similar working papers and other materials accumulated for preparation of a communication, a study, an investigation, a survey, an inspection, or other action. This description does not include official and quasi-official recommendations, coordinating actions, and other documents which contribute to or result from preparation of the communication or other record.

Cut off on completion of the communication, study, survey report, or other action. Destroy in blocks after an additional 3 months, 6 months, or 1 year. Earlier destruction is authorized.

b. Cards, listings, indexes, and similar documents used for facilitating and controlling work.

Destroy when no longer needed to facilitate or control work.

c. Copies of technical documents, intelligence documents, emergency plans, mobilization plans, and similar reproduced materials that do not fall within the description reference publications files.
